A sailor approached the officer of the deck after retreat on board the Chicago yesterday and said, saluting, "Sir, may I have permission to go to the Saturn?" "What for?" said that officer. "To get the cat," was the reply.

Now the cat was not the famous cato-nine-tails once so much heard of in the nautical stories, but the big tom cat which "joined" the flagship at San Francisco. That cat is the pet of the ship. When the flagship went to Hilo, the cruiser's cat stayed behind to get acquainted with the cats of the tropics. He evidently got pretty well acquainted for when the cruiser returned and "the cat came back" he was a battle scarred veteran. Meantime he had become acquainted with the officers and crew of the Saturn, the navy collier and supply ship, and the men wanted their pet back. Hence the request to leave ship after hours. The request was promptly granted.

Beside the cat, the battleship boasts a rat. Not a plague rat, but a white rat straight from Bremerton, Washington. That rat is also a pet and is a glossy, well fed, well mannered rodent, as white as driven snow. The sailor who seems to be his special guardian says that the more he pounds the rat the better he likes him. He crawls all over the boys, takes his cigarette smoke like a Spanish senorita and HENRY WATERHOUSE makes himself quite at home wherever he is. But he never gets "shore leave." It is a peculiar thing that the cat and the rat are the best of friends. Once in a while the rat gets a little too the cat's lips with his sharp teeth. Then the cat just looks pained and turns up his eyes to the boys for sympathy. He never seems to think of such a thing as eating up his companion. If he did the boys would soon teach him better manners, no doubt.

BARK OLYMPIC ARRIVES.

The four-masted bark Olympic, Capt Evans, arrived from San Francisco about 8 a. m. Sunday with a general cargo consigned to H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., after a sixteen days trip.

The voyage down was an average one for weather and sea. A threemasted English ship bound for Puget Sound was sighted at 31 N. and 138 W., but it was too early in the morning to make out her number. Friday a large steamer was sighted just before Maui was picked up.

The Olympic's cargo comprises about 2300 tons. She is docked at Channe wharf to discharge, which will take about five days. She hopes to get her sugar cargo in time to leave about the 20th of January.

KAUAI SHIPPING. The W. G. Hall and Ke Au Hou came in from Kauai county at 3:46 and 4 a.

The Hall brought 90 bags of rice, 7 bags of pia, 20 bags of taro, and 57 packages of sundries.

Purser McNamara reports the Mikahala at Waimea loading sugar, the Whitney at Makaweli discharging coal. Fine weather on Kauai, Medium trades and moderate seas crossing channel on windward trip.

SHIPPING NOTES.

There was a story current on the waterfront yesterday that the Lawton had put back to San Francisco, one day out, in distress, but no foundation could be laid for the story.

The Buford will sail Tuesday afternoon or evening. The men have been taken off the ship in companies and given exercise and a chance to see the city. They will all come off Tuesday, it is said, and remain off until about four in the afternoon.

Mauna Loa, Simerson, from forts to entertain at dinner this evening, and the stranger that is within the gates of Honolulu, far, far away from home, may expect entirely to forget that he is not fortunate enough this year to be at home with the family. There will be music at each hotel, and everything will be lively. The hotels are making plans for a large list of extra tables. Handsome souvenir menus have been prepared. The Moana Hotel will also give a military hop after dinner in honor of the U. S. A. T. Buford officers and ladies. This is the dance postponed from Saturday night. Being Christmas night a large crowd of townsfolk is expected to be present. All the officers on the various ships in the harbor and from the local garrison have been especially invited to attend.
